SCOPE OF CONTEST

Using DVD NTSC High Quality encoding, contestants submit a 30-90 second video telling a story using animation.

NUMBER OF COMPETITORS

The competition is a team (two members), limited to 30 entries.

Fresno ROP reserves the right to modify enrollment due to limited spaces available.

RULES AND PROCEDURES

1. The contestant will submit a 30-90 second video telling a story using animation. The story must have a beginning, middle and ending. In order to prevent academic dishonesty, please include two of the following in the animations:
 - a. A plate of bacon
 - b. A famous movie quote (timestamp in presentation notes)
 - c. A yellow polka-dot skateboard
 - d. The line, "we're running out of time!"
 - e. A hammer
 - f. A blue bicycle with a flat tire
 - g. A laptop with a cracked screen
2. Talent and voice-overs within the trailer are not restricted to students only.
3. Video must have a soundtrack. Silent entries will be disqualified.
 - a. All submissions are expected to follow best practices for copyright attribution.
4. All entries must be DVD NTSC High Quality encoding. A USB disk, DVD or Unrestricted link to YouTube will be accepted.
5. The submitted material must include: Student(s) name, school's name, and the title of the material.
6. All entries must include "Presentation Notes" (see form below). The notes must describe the intent of the entry and a brief description of the method/processes used in creating the video.
7. All entries, with accompanying presentation notes and student/school information, must be in the Fresno CTE/ROP office by 4:00 p.m., March 1, 2024. If submitting a YouTube link, please email the presentation notes to sgeorge@fcoe.org.
